❖ Week 1 - Designing your program and finding the key to what's been holding you back!

Discovering what is holding you back from transitioning through Spiritual Limbo. From information collected this week we will design the program to continue your journey and discover more.

Belief Systems & Fears

❖ Week 2 - 1.0 – Empowerment; pushing through the human veil to gain insight to what lights you up.

During this time we will discuss what drives you toward wanting to be more spiritual and how you will use it to light up your life. We will connect with past and future selves to discuss this further and ascertain what tools you already have and how to synchronise them in your world now.

Your You-niversity awaits to light up your Soul library and unveil your Akashic Records.

❖ Week 3 - 1.0 – Going deeper into your Spiritual Emporium to find out how best you can light up your spiritual tools.

Once again your past and future selves have been using these tools for many lifetimes and NOW is the time for you to re-awaken how you would like to use them in your current life now. Who they will help, how they will help. Depending on how many tools you have reawakened determines the following weeks.

Creating and re-connecting with your higher counsel, guides, gate keepers and angels.

❖ Week 4 - 1.0 – Understanding the art of embracing your Shadow and why it's your brightest light.

Your shadow can be your friend or foe. Embracing your shadow and discovering it's gifts for you allows you deeper transcendence into the spiritual realm as the ego steps aside. Lighting up the shadows and making alliance with all of YOU will release any blockages within.

Releasing your darkside through deep shadow and light reflection work.

❖ Week 5 - 1.0 – Building the bridge of Communication to release and transform your physical energy.

During this time you will create a connection with a higher source of spiritual activity to move from physical healing and guidance to spiritual healing and guidance whilst retaining a keeping it real approach. (Your clients and friends will only notice this if you tell them this is what you are doing) It's time to become pure light and energy in motion clearing all energy centres to manifest a strong and committed auric energy.

Release and transform your physical energy to create balance in between 2 worlds.

❖ Week 6 - 1.0 – Brightening up your inner intuitive deciphering your codes so you become your very own GVS. (Guiding Voice System)

By now you have enlightened and brought together all of your spiritual and physical energies, you know what you want to do, you have your purpose and mission and you are ready to feel confident and in alignment with the work you will be doing. You are ready to unleash your healing energy onto the world. Let's practice.

Aligning more with YOUR OWN healing medicine.

❖ Week 7 - Q & A before receiving your full re connective healing to recharge your physical self and connect on a deeper level to your lightworker within.

Healers need healing to and during our last session you will be taken on a deep healing journey of sacrificing your old energy for your new enlightened one. We will take time to answer any questions and tweak anything that you are not certain on. You will then be ready to continue to grow and expand into your purpose as a spiritual teacher, healer and guide to enhance your already chosen field in this world.

This personalised program may or may not change dependent on the synchronicities that occur between sessions and the choices that you as the participant may be guided to take.
